

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL
HOSPITALS

Robert M. Insoft, MD

Senior Vice President, Quality & Medical Affairs

Chief Medical Officer

Staff Neonatologist

Women & Infants Hospital

Associate Professor of Pediatrics

Brown University Alpert Medical School

Insoft has served as the NICU medical director at Massachusetts General and Brigham & Women's hospitals. He also has been appointed to numerous senior hospital/educational committee positions. Insoft is active on many charitable boards, including March of Dimes and Mothers Milk Bank Northeast. He has received awards for clinical teaching, management, and community service.

Insoft served two elected terms as chair of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) Section on Transport Medicine, in addition to speaking at various conferences. He also has authored numerous articles and chapters, many on quality improvement and transport medicine, and is the editor-in-chief of the 2015 AAP Guidelines for Air and Ground Transport of Critically Ill Neonates and Children.