

Ms. Barbara Bornmann, MA, RDT/BCT, LCAT

*Associate Director of Behavioral Health
NYC Health + Hospitals|Kings County
Brooklyn, NY*

BARBARA A. BORNMANN, MA, MA, RDT/BCT, LCAT, is currently an Associate Director in Behavioral Health and Director of Therapeutic Rehabilitation Department at New York City Health and Hospitals, Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, N.Y. Former work includes Director of Psychiatric Rehabilitation Services at Interfaith Medical Center, and Supervisor of Activity Therapy for the acute psychiatric child and forensic units at New York City Health and Hospitals, Elmhurst Hospital in Queens, N.Y. A recipient of numerous grants and awards, areas of research include aggression reduction with children, and upcoming research on efficacy of group programming in acute psychiatry. Publications listed below.

Bornmann, B.A., Crossman, A, M, (2011). Playback Theatre: Effects on students' views of aggression and empathy within a forensic context. Arts in Psychotherapy, 38, 3, 164-168.

Bornmann, B.A., Mitelman, S. A., Beer, D. A. (2007). Psychotherapeutic relaxation: how it relates to levels of aggression in a school within inpatient child psychiatry. Arts in Psychotherapy, 34, 3, 196-202.

Bornmann, B.A. (2007). Three approaches to drama therapy. Art Therapy, 24, 3, 143-144.