

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL
HOSPITALS

Zaqueena Coleman, BSN, RN

Labor and Delivery Nurse

Maricopa Medical Center

Zaqueena Coleman is currently a labor and delivery nurse at Maricopa Medical Center in Phoenix, Arizona. She has been a nurse for six years with experience in medical-surgical, trauma, and postpartum care. She graduated from Northern Arizona University with a B.S. in Psychology and from Phoenix College with a BSN. Prior to becoming a registered nurse, Zaqueena was a social worker for the State of Arizona within child protective services. Zaqueena is currently in graduate school to become a Family Nurse Practitioner with an emphasis on women's health.

