

Barbara Eyman, JD
Principal
Eyman Associates

Barbara Eyman has been representing a diverse set of clients on health care law and policy matters since 1991. Her practice focuses on Medicaid, Medicare, the Children's Health Insurance Program, and the development and implementation of a wide variety of programs under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), including Health Benefits Exchanges.

She has served as Washington Counsel for America's Essential Hospitals throughout her career, providing her with deep insight into a range of health care policies and extensive experience with the policy-making process. Barbara also regularly advises clients on Medicare reimbursement issues, including Medicare DSH and GME payments, and Federally Qualified Health Center status. Barbara founded Eyman Associates in November 2011, after resigning a partnership with Ropes & Gray, LLP. Prior to law school, Barbara was a health care legislative assistant for then-Representative Leon E. Panetta.

Sarah Mutinsky, JD
Founding Senior Advisor

Sarah Mutinsky focuses her practice on providing strategic regulatory, legislative, and advocacy assistance in matters of health care law, policy and financing. In the course of this practice, she works with a range of clients from national and state associations, to individual hospitals and health systems, academic medical centers and faculty physician groups, federally qualified health centers, and other health care providers and suppliers.

Sarah also serves as Washington Counsel to America's Essential Hospitals, using lessons from on-the-ground work to inform federal policy development, and in turn leveraging insight from regulatory and legislative advocacy at the national level to help further the interests of individual providers and state and local efforts across the country.

Sarah joined Barbara Eyman from the inception of Eyman Associates in November 2011, after several years as an Associate in the Health Care Group at Ropes & Gray, LLP. Prior to practicing law, Sarah worked as a consultant specializing in health care market research and sales force analysis.
