

AMERICA'S ESSENTIAL HOSPITALS

Timothy Hill, MPA

Senior Vice President for Health

IMPAQ International

Hill is a highly experienced health policy executive with a demonstrated ability to lead diverse teams developing and implementing health policy solutions in fast-paced environments. He has strong policy, financial management, and program implementation qualifications, as well as a 25-year track record of successful interactions at the highest levels of the executive branch, Congress, oversight agencies, and the press. Hill is recognized in the health policy community as a strong communicator who brings a risk-based, solutions-oriented mindset to problem solving and policy development.

Before joining IMPAQ, Hill was the deputy director of the Center for Medicaid and CHIP Services. Hill has been an accountable leader in several senior positions within the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), including chief financial officer, program integrity director, deputy director of the Center for Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight, and deputy director of the Center for Medicare.

In 2004, Hill was awarded the Presidential Rank Award for outstanding service. He holds a bachelor's degree from Northeastern University and a master's degree from the University of Connecticut.
